

Academic Language – Grade 6 (2014)
(From SBAC Practice Test Scoring Guide 2013 for Grade 6)

The author suggests _____. Which sentence from the text best supports this inference?

Which statement best summarizes the central idea of the text?

Which statement best summarizes the central idea of the paragraphs?

Click on the statement that best describes what the reference to ____ shows about _____.

How does this sentence add to the confusion about _____ presented in the text?

How does the last paragraph add to the central idea of the text? Select three options.

Which statement best describes the phrase “_____” adds to the meaning of the text?

Which detail from the text best supports the idea that the narrator is feeling discouraged?

Which sentence from the text best summarizes the central idea of the text?

Click on the word that most closely matches the definition provided.

What inference can be made about the narrator’s feelings about _____? Support your answer with details from the text.

Select the statement that best describes how the relationship between the narrator and Libby develops in the paragraphs. Which sentences from the text that best support your answer in part A? Select three options.

What does the phrase “ _____ ” suggest about the narrator’s comfort level with _____? Select two choices.

What do the descriptions “ _____ ” and “ _____ ” suggest about the character?

In one paragraph, write an ending to the narrative that follows logically from the events or experiences in the narrative.

Select the best sentence to transition between the two paragraphs.

The student needs to add an introduction that clearly establishes the claim about _____. Choose the paragraph that would make the best introduction.

The student needs to add an introduction that clearly establishes the claim about _____. Choose the paragraph that would make the best introduction.

The writer wants to replace the underlined phrase to make her meaning more exact. Which word would make her word choice better.

Which of the words best replaces the underlined phrases with more clear and specific language?

Click on the two sentences that contain errors in spelling.

What is the most likely purpose of the presentation?

What additional information could be added to the presentation to best help the listener’s understanding of the main idea?

Which conclusion is best supported by the information in the presentation? Which detail from the presentation best supports your answer in part A?

What is the central idea of the presentation?

Which conclusion is best supported by evidence from the presentation?

How does this sentence influence the listener's understanding of the presentation?

The student took notes about information in the sources. Select two notes that correctly paraphrase, or restate information from both sources.

Which source would most likely give the student more information for the paragraph from his report?

Decide if the information in Source 1, Source 2, both sources, or neither source supports each claim.