	Elements	Self	Peer	Teacher
Content	I created a real or imagined narrative which is well developed.
	I hooked the reader with a description of the setting and introduction of the narrator and/or characters.
	I organized the events in a way that unfolds naturally and logically.
	I used dialogue, description, and pacing to develop experiences, events and/or characters.
	I used a variety of transitional words, phrases or clauses to signal shifts from one time to the next.
	I used precise words, phrases, descriptions, and sensory details to describe experiences and events.
	I wrote a conclusion the follows the narrative.
Conventions	I used all punctuation carefully and correctly.
	I correctly spelled words, using a dictionary or the word wall to check correct spelling.
	I used verb tenses correctly to show time, states, and conditions and checked my noun-verb agreement.
	I used a variety of simple, compound, and complex sentences.
	I reread, edited and revised my story for errors I found.
